

IN THE CHANCERY COURT FOR SUMNER COUNTY, GALLATIN, TENNESSEE

vs.

Rule #

ORDER IN ALL DIVORCE CASES WHERE THE PARTIES HAVE MINOR CHILDREN

You are hereby notified that upon filing of a complaint, personal service, or waiver or acceptance of service by the respondent, both parties are bound to abide by the provisions of this order as set forth verbatim below. Violation of this order may result in a finding of contempt of court. This order shall remain in full force and effect pending the final decree of divorce in this case.

Comes now Chancellor, Louis W. Oliver, III and orders that in all divorce cases filed in the Chancery Court for Sumner County, Gallatin, Tennessee that the following order is in affect for both parties.

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that:

1. Neither parent shall make derogatory remarks about the other parent in the presence of the children nor allow other persons in the children's presence to make derogatory remarks about the other parent.
2. Neither parent shall be impaired nor consume alcohol or illegal drugs while they are in the possession of the children. The parents shall not allow any persons to be around the children who are impaired from using alcohol or drugs of any kind. This includes while the children are sleeping.
3. While the divorce is pending, neither parent will be allowed to have the children around another person they are involved with romantically. The romantic interest may not spend the night while the children are present. The romantic interest may not have any contact with the children until the final decree of divorce is entered.
4. Both parents are entitled to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extracurricular school, athletic, church activities and other activities as to which parental participation or observation would be appropriate. The parent who has enrolled the child in each such activity shall advise the other parent of the activity and provide contact information for the person responsible for its scheduling so that the other parent may make arrangements to participate or observe whenever possible, unless otherwise provided by law or court order.

Louis W. Oliver, III, Judge of Chancery Court
